JUDGE HURLEY

Defendant/Petitioner

ORDER REQUIRING PARTIES
TO ATTEND "FAMILIES
SUCCEEDING AFTER DIVORCE" SEMINAR

The Domestic Relations Court provides services to meet the needs of divorcing families. Among those services is "Families Succeeding After Divorce", as seminar for divorced or divorcing parents. This two hour seminar focuses on the needs of children during the divorce process, with emphasis on reducing bitterness, resolving conflicts, and improving visitation.

Pursuant to the inherent powers of this Court, and in order to provide the efficient and inexpensive resolution of disputes, the Court finds that it is in the best interests of the children to require the parents to obtain additional parenting information.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that both parents in this case shall pre-register within 15 days of filing, and attend and successfully complete the program entitled "Families Succeeding After Divorce", described in the attached information sheet. Both parties shall pre-register for the seminar. This can be accomplished by calling the Domestic Relations Court at (937) 562-6237 for the seminar dates and to pre-register. (If you are filing pro se, both parties must attend the seminar prior to your paperwork being approved by the Compliance Office for filing)

The Domestic Relations Court will issue each participant a certificate of completion, and send a copy to the Clerk's office to be filed.

It is the responsibility of the client's attorney to make sure both parties receive a copy of this Order. If parties are filing without the benefit of an attorney, a copy of this Order will be included with your dissolution packet.

SO ORDERED.
