ENTRY

Upon Applicant's representation that there are no probate assets to administer in this estate, and that opening this estate is necessary for the limited purpose stated in the Application, the Court dispenses with the requirement of filing an inventory and accounts in this estate. If the Fiduciary later discovers any assets that require probate administration, the Court may modify this Entry to require an inventory and accounts.

The Fiduciary must file a Status Report annually on or before the anniversary date of appointment (See Local Rule 64.2(H)).
